PROGRAM SCHEDULE

12:00 p.m.
“Umbrellas for Peace” Art Project, led by Women for Change, University of Hartford.

1 p.m.
Girclott Panel discussion, led by founding members of Girclott (Donna Berman, Kaylee Crockett, Laura Lockwood, Mala Maticin, Amanda Roy).

1:30 p.m.
Breakout Session. Small group discussions on action steps for the future of Girclott.

2 p.m.
Sophia Talks. “Sophia” is the Greek word for “wisdom.” TED Talks with a twist, Sophia Talks are stories and presentations that impart women’s wisdom, with humor, heart and intelligence.

3 p.m.
Keynote Speaker: Linda Tabar Ph.D., Visiting Assistant Professor of International Studies, Trinity College. Her research is situated at the intersections of Middle East studies, transnational feminist studies and international studies.

“G(end)ER INJUSTICE: A Girclott Gathering” will bring together community members, youth, educators, and feminists from around Connecticut to lift our voices for gender equality.

This conference will offer an opportunity for individuals to explore gender issues across a broad spectrum of areas related to feminism that may include, but are not limited to misogyny, body image, pay equity, violence against women, and reproductive rights.

APRIL 2, 2017. 12-4 p.m.
CHARTER OAK CULTURAL CENTER
21 Charter Oak Avenue
Hartford, CT 06106
860-310-2586
www.charteroakcenter.org