Enter the Connecticut Poetry Circuit Competition!

The University of Hartford may nominate one student poet to compete with student poets from around the state in the Connecticut Poetry Circuit student competition. The winners (five poets) will go on a Connecticut Poetry Circuit tour, giving readings at colleges and universities all around our state. There is also money involved: payment for each reading.

Think about it: money for reading your poems!

The readings are scheduled from February 4th to March 15th, 2018. To enter, you must be available to read during this time. Readings typically are at night. Please do not enter the contest if you aren’t available for spring 2018 night-time readings.

In the past nine years, we’ve had students in this competition seven times. Why? Because we have great poets.

Submissions Guidelines:

1) Submit FIVE PAGES of poems. No more than one poem per page, though you may submit poems longer than one page.

2) Do not put your name on the poems themselves. Include a cover letter with your name, contact information (telephone and email), and the poem titles.

3) Email the poem to GROSSBERG@HARTFORD.EDU as one .docx file.

4) The deadline is Friday, OCTOBER 12, 2018. No late submissions considered.
