Graduate Research/Creativity Symposium
Tuesday, April 23, 2019

Applications are now being solicited for the annual Graduate Research/Creativity Symposium

The purpose of the symposium is to showcase the wide variety of original scholarship (e.g. research projects, case studies, artistic performances, exhibits) conducted by graduate students at the University of Hartford. Presentations must be in the form of posters or other materials that can be displayed on tables or in the form of short performances, as appropriate.

Applications are due by Tuesday, April 9, 2019 to Clark Saunders, Associate Provost and Dean of Graduate Studies, clsaunder@hartford.edu, CC 311, ext. 4504

NO LATE APPLICATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED

Graduate students can pick up applications in the offices of their college deans or online at http://www.hartford.edu/graduate/Dean.aspx
